

AL FALAH SCHOOL OF MEDICAL SCIENCES & RESEARCH CENTER

ALFALAHUNIVERSITY
DHAUJ, FARIDABAD

Event Summary Report

Organized by: M.D.S.D College, Ambala City, Haryana

Occasion: World Earth Day

Date of Submission: 28th April 2025

To mark the global celebration of World Earth Day, a National Level Essay Writing Competition was organized by M.D.S.D College, Ambala City, Haryana. The competition aimed to encourage students across institutions to express their awareness, thoughts, and innovative ideas for the betterment of the environment and sustainability of the Earth.

The event attracted enthusiastic participation from various students who showcased their writing talent and environmental consciousness. The topic of the essay writing competition revolved around “World Earth Day”, allowing participants to explore themes such as climate change, sustainability, conservation, pollution control, and the role of youth in environmental protection.

From our institution, the following students actively participated and submitted their essays for the competition:

- Umema Patel – AFMG 308
- Khushi – AFMG 810
- Nancy – AFMG 858
- Ridha – AFMG 827
- Ashman – AFMG 892
- Hurmat – AFMG 891
- Ramneek – AFMG 806

These students demonstrated commendable effort in crafting well-researched and thoughtful essays, reflecting their deep concern for environmental issues and their role as responsible citizens.

The last date for submission was 28th April 2025, and all participants ensured timely submission of their entries. The Cultural Society successfully facilitated and mediated the event.

Such events are crucial in nurturing a sense of responsibility among the youth towards protecting the environment. The management and faculty of the college appreciated the initiative and encouraged more students to take part in similar activities in the future.

In conclusion, the competition was a great success, with active student participation and positive feedback from all involved. We look forward to more such enriching opportunities that inspire environmental consciousness and creative expression.

A State Level Short Story Writing Competition was organized by the Department of English, Government Post Graduate College, Ambala Cantt. The competition was held to promote creative writing and encourage young talent in the field of English literature.

As per the competition guidelines, only one participant was allowed from each university. Representing our university, Shaikh Kaifoddin Khamroddin, Batch 2024 was selected as the sole participant. He took part in the event with great enthusiasm and showcased his storytelling skills through an original short story.

The event saw participation from various universities across the state, making it a vibrant and competitive platform for aspiring writers. Such opportunities not only foster creativity but also motivate students to pursue their literary interests with greater dedication.

